

Insolvency Law

We have an experienced and specialized department consisting of 4 lawyers and 1 fee earner who grant quick and competent consultancy to depressed companies

We constitute a quorum in hard cases and we collaborate with accountants and financial institutions in order to secure a longterm and viable foundation for further operation. The lawyers of the department work as supervisors and trustees in bankruptcy in a wide range of estates.

The department of insolvency law provides targeted and results-oriented assistance to companies and creditors. The department has great experience in handling reorganisations, suspension of payments and insolvent estates. The lawyers of the department work as supervisors and trustees in bankruptcy in a wide range of estates with very considerable assets.

The department takes advantage of a widespread collaboration with our other departments, including

- Real-estate and project development
- Property management
- Debt collection
- Mortgage debt collection

Therefore we are capable of advising in all areas regarding depressed businesses.

Competent lawyers and secretaries make the department capable of providing a fast and skillfull effort in difficult cases.

Reorganisation

The department of insolvency law provides competent and professional aid in connection with reorganisation of businesses. We are very experienced in saving economically depressed businesses and we are used to advising about legal and economical elements in a reorganisation. Elements in our counselling are:

- Economical and legal overview
- Establishment of reorganisation plans
- Means of procurement of available funds
- Long-term refinancing
- Negotiations with financial institutions and investors
- Deferring of payments (moratorium)
- Composition solutions
- Suspension of payments

We are used to turning out quickly.

Suspension of payments and bankruptcy

The department of insolvency law has a great experience in handling of suspension of payments and bankruptcy and we work as supervisors and trustees in a wide range of estates. We often represent financial institutions and other financial creditors as well as contractor interests. Our expertise consists of ie.:
